Dear Families,

This week, the Oaks have been amazing at complementing and critiquing each other's writing to each achieve their very best. Specifically, they were looking for the correct register of writing by considering their audience carefully.

In Maths, they continued to work hard by adding fractions this week and tackled some exciting yet challenging journaling questions. I wonder if they will pick your brains with any of these at home.

The Oaks persevered in Art this week as they attempted to sketch scenes from WW2 with inspiration from art by LS Lowry. The Oaks were intrigued by how, as an artist, he used 'matchstick men' instead of detailed people for his artwork.

Thank you to all of you who were able to make it to the Easter service. I heard the Oaks were fabulous readers and singers, so I hope you all enjoyed sharing this special time of year with them.

Finally, thank you to those who were very supportive of our fundraising today and dressed up in your silliest of outfits! The money you raised is going to an incredibly important cause- to buy Frazer the specialist equipment he needs.

Thank you for a wonderful week Oaks and have a fabulous weekend!

Miss Houcke

Worker of the Week

Worker of the week this week is awarded to Taylor for his phenomenal effort with fractions this week and building independence and resilience.

Presentation Award

Presentation award this week is for Layla as her handwriting is continuously beautifully well written and she is always taking care of the presentation of her work.
